Number 10.

R. C. Gilbert Home.

R. C. Gilbert, son of A. M. Gilbert of this city, came home Saturday, having received an honorable discharge.

Mr. Gilbert left Marion April 29, 1918 and went to Camp Taylor. He had only been there a short time when he was transferred to Camp Custer, in Michigan, where he stayed almost four months.

He was then transferred to the First division in August and ordered to France. He sailed from Hoboken on the British transport, Minnekaha to Liverpool and from there to South Hampton, and finally landed at LaHarve, France.

While "over there" he was in three offensives, the first being at Saizerais Sector, Aug. 7 to 24, the second at St. Mihiel Sept. 12 to 16, and the third at Argonne, Sept. 26 to Nov. 11. He received three bronze stars.

After the war he did duty on the line, but took advantage of the passes granted the soldiers and visited Belgium, the British Isles, and different parts of France. His ship arrived at New York August 30 and on September 10 he marched in the Victory Parade. He was also in the parade in Washington September 17th.

A Water Story.

Dave Moore has gone and dug him a well on his place and tells us that he only got down 36 feet when he struck water and now has 37 1-2 feet of water in the well and the water is running out over the top of that. This is because the casing of the well sticks out of the ground 18 inches. And the water is running out over the top of that. And some people wonder where Marion can get a water supply.

Quiet Wedding.

Miss Gretta Mae Holeman and Mr. Thomas Hughes were married Monday at the home of W. H. Graves, the Rev. Jas. F. Price officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sallie Holeman of near Tolu and is a favorite among the people of her community.

Mr. Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Thomas of the Tolu section and is an enterprising young farmer.

The young couple will make their home in Repton.

Rev. Short Returns

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Short will be pleased to learn that he has been returned to Marion as pastor of the Methodist church. This is Rev. Short's fourth year here and his estimable family have a host of friends in and around Marion.

J. L. F. Paris,

Republican Speaker Here.

Prof. George Colvin, republican nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction, spoke at Marion on last Friday in the Circuit court room of the court house to about two hundred enthusiastic voters of this county.

His speech was devoted principally to the interest of the schools and school books of this state, and was received well.

His hearers were all united in expressing their approval of Mr. Colvin's ideas along these lines.

News of the School

After two weeks of study and fruitful school work, the different classes of the Marion High School met last Friday afternoon in their respective rooms and each formed an organization of its own.

The officers elected for the Senior class: Harry Moore, President; Margaret Hard, librarian; Willard Daugherty, treasurer; Jerry Rankin, class secretary; Willard Daugherty, assistant librarian of class; Dollie Enoch, head librarian of school; J. Henry, chief reporter of school.

The officers of the Junior class: Roberta Moore, president; Leoda McWhirter, vice-president; Watts Franklin, secretary and treasurer; Forrest Hammack, class librarian; Ruby Gahagen, assistant librarian; Vera Eskew, class reporter.

The officers of the Sophomore class: Willard Franks, president; Vida Bigham, vice president; Calvert Small, treasurer; Marie Lowery, librarian; Velda Elkins, assistant librarian; Martha Reed, reporter.

The Scimitarian or girls literary society was organized with the following officers: Melba Williams, president; Vida Bigham, vice-president; Vera Eskew, secretary; Laura Butler, treasurer; Robbie Fowler, sergeant at arms.

The Manthanipian, or boys literary society was organized with the following officers: Hubert Crider, president; J. Henry, vice president; Charles Grubbs, secretary; Watts Franklin, treasurer; Otis Wheeler, corresponding secretary; Hary Moore, sergeant at arms; Billie Eskew, door keeper.

During the summer months many improvements were made on the school property, among which are the new sanitary toilets, remodeling the cottage on the school ground into a modern school room; a change was also made so as to insure plenty of fresh water at all times.

One new feature which greatly aids the agricultural student is the new well equipped laboratories.

Professor Christian, always awake to anything that concerns the school attended a meeting of the principals of most of the schools of western Kentucky at Dawson Springs a short time ago. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss interscholastic athletics and contests.

Look! Here is the globe spread out flat before your eyes. See those stars? Every star shows where a U. S. Navy ship was on September 2nd, 1919. The Navy travels the Seven Seas.

Don't you want to see the World?

ROMANCE is calling to you! Strange and smiling foreign lands are beckoning to you. Shove off and see the world!

Learn to "parley-voo" in gay Patee. See the bull-fights in Panama. See surf-riding on the beach of Waikiki.

Learn the lure that comes with the swish and swirl of the good salt sea. Eat well—free; dress well—free; sleep clean—free; and look 'em all straight in the eye—British, French, Chinese, Japanese, Spaniards, Egyptians, Algerians and all manner of people.

Come! Be a real man of the world. See the world. See it with the red-blooded, hard-working, hard-playing men of the U. S. Navy.

Pay begins the day you join. On board ship a man is always learning. Trade schools develop skill, industry and business ability. Thirty days care-free holiday each year with full pay. The food is good. First uniform outfit is furnished free. Promotion is unlimited for men of brains. You can enlist for two years and come out broader, stronger and abler.

Shove off—Join the U. S. Navy. If you're between 17 and 35 go to the nearest recruiting station for all the details. If you don't know where it is ask your postmaster.

The Moores Celebrate.

Judge and Mrs. James A. Moore were agreeably surprised—or the originators of the idea had supposed they would be—on Thursday Sept. 25th by the largest dinner ever given in Marion—the occasion being the 58th anniversary of their marriage in 1861. The place was at the home of John A. Moore, the time was at high noon and the banqueters were the numerous relatives of the highly esteemed Judge and his still blushing bride.

The conspirators who had hoped to keep their plans secret overlooked the fact that the popularity of the judge and his wife would defeat their ends for the "plans of mice and men often gang agla." Some of the plotters became too enthusiastic and inadvertently spread the glad tidings where they should not have been spread and consequently the genial old judge was chuckling to himself and telling his wife that these young folks can not get ahead of them. He said that the numerous details were more than appreciated largely because of the fact that he could see them being carried out without his "children knowing that he had observed them."

The preparations were exhaustive and called into service the skill of our local cooks and the justly famed barbecue experts—but the resulting roasted pig and other delicacies more than repaid the fortunate partakers of the luscious viands served a la cafeteria on the lawn.

All of the guests were told to help themselves to the culinary delights that tempted the eyes and makes your mouth have a wistful feeling and later gave rise to a feeling of complete satisfaction.

After the obsequies of the dinner the local photographer appeared on the scene and made a number of pictures of the crowd and of Mr. and Mrs. Judge. The most noted of the groups taken was that of the judge, his wife and little great grandson, Jim Al Moore with the little chap holding the wedding cake. He had just lispied the presentation speech when the picture was taken.

Those present were: Mrs. Levi Cook, Mrs. Bacon of Hopkinsville, A. C. Moore, D. B. Moore, R. E. Moore of Madisonville and John A. Moore, besides eighteen grandchildren and one great grandchild, also S. J. Daughtrey of Hebron and Billie Moore of Eldorado, Ill., brother and brother-in-law of the judge, and Miss Margaret Moore.

Letter From Sailor.

Brest, France, Aug., 19, 1919. Dearest Sis:

I guess you will be surprised to get a letter from me, but this is meant for all of you.

We arrived in Brest a week-ago last Saturday from Harwich, England. But I haven't received any mail from any of you yet. I have had two from Ethel, she said in her last letter that Ruby couldn't live much longer. I sure do feel sorrow for her, but it cannot be helped.

I guess you had some time in Paducah, I hope so anyway. Wish I could have been there, but it will be a long long time before I get back there, cause we go from here to Italy, Spain, Egypt, the Philippines and China, and I don't know how long the ship will be there. It will take three or four months for us to make the trip.

I will be sent back to the west coast when my four years are up and that will complete my trip around the World, some trip I say, but I had lots rather be at home. Do you ever see ———? I think I will write her a letter if I ever get time.

I am sending some pictures of my self and another chap on the ship, and one of me by my self. Take a good look at my mustache, you can hardly see it, I have cut it off though, I didn't like it one bit.

This leaves me in the best of health and I hope it will find all of you the same. Tell mother and father not to worry about me, and you be a good girl.

Love to all,
Your brother,
Willie.
